

A close-up photograph of a waterfall. Water is falling over a series of dark, wet rocks covered in green moss. The water is captured in motion, creating a blurred, silky texture as it falls. The background is more of the same rocky terrain, with some moss and small plants visible. The overall scene is natural and serene.

Genesis 33:03 And he passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.
