

A close-up photograph of a pond filled with lily pads. The lily pads are dark green with serrated edges and are covered in small, yellowish-brown spots. Two red lily buds are visible, one in the center and one to the right. The water is dark and reflects the light.

Psalms 54:03 For strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul:
they have not set God before them.
Selah.