

A close-up photograph of a dense cluster of purple plants with small, bright pink flowers. The leaves are elongated and pointed, with a deep purple hue and some green variegation. The flowers are small and tubular, with a bright pink center. The background is a soft, out-of-focus mix of purple and green, suggesting a garden or field setting.

Psalms 84:09 Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.
