

A close-up photograph of a pond filled with green lily pads and several blooming pink water lilies. The lily pads are large, round, and have a slightly wavy edge. The water lilies are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The background is a soft-focus view of the pond's surface.

Isaiah 07:19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.
