

A close-up photograph of golden wheat stalks, showing the intricate details of the grain and the long, thin awns. The wheat is bathed in warm, golden light, creating a rich, textured background. Overlaid on this image is a block of white text in a serif font, which reads: "Ezekiel 21:04 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north:". The text is arranged in seven lines, with the first line being the longest and the last line being the shortest, creating a balanced, centered composition.

Ezekiel 21:04 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north:
